Continuous Professional Development Modules...

These explain the many different modules which scorers can take to develop their skills and progress through the Scorers Pathway. These are designed for people who already know how to score manually and therefore the laws of cricket and basics of scoring are not covered within them.

Electronic Scoring (Laptop Software PCS Pro):

This module teaches existing scorers how to use Play-Cricket Scorer Pro software package. To attend this module, you will need to download Play-Cricket Scorer Pro and bring your own laptop along. The course is a hands-on practical workshop covering setting up and scoring a match, editing entries, printing, importing/exporting and uploading results to the Play-Cricket.com.

Available Courses: Sunday 21st January @ Shaw Lane Sports Club, Barnsley @ 9.30am. To book please follow this link: <https://booking.ecb.co.uk/d/t1qlgh>

Sunday 28th January @ Castleford CC @ 10am. To book please follow this link: <https://booking.ecb.co.uk/d/71q1t6>

Linear Scoring (CPD):

This module teaches existing scorers how to complete a linear scoresheet, which is an alternative layout of paper scoresheet to the conventional box style scoring record.

The course contains a large practical element of scoring a recorded match, after spending time getting familiar with the new layout of scoresheet. Linear scoresheets make a good back-up system when scoring electronically.

It looks at the brief history of DLS and considers the difference between DLS formats. It includes practical sessions for both DLS Professional (computer program) and DLS Standard (manual calculations). Scorers attending this module will need to bring their own laptop but the DLS professional software will be provided on the day.
